

FLRH plumbing with description

- A. Two 1" standard supply ports, one of these ports will have a dry well for the sensor bulb of the Ranco thermostat. The pump on this port needs to run continuously so as to provide water flow past thermostat.
- B. One 3/4" port for water level site tube and analog thermometer.
- C. Brass shark bite fitting is return line to domestic water supply.
- D. 3/4" T is supply from domestic water heater and,
- E. also supply for filling the furnace. This line runs to the front of the furnace to fill valve makes a loop comes back on F.
- F. Water from fill valve on front enters water jacket here.
- G. This is the extra supply port will be located if applicable.
- H. Two standard 1" return ports.
- I. This is the extra 1" return port if applicable.
- J. Ranco ETC digital thermostat
- K. Combustion blower with auto damper (controlled by Ranco)

